

WINNIE

Fine.

...

...

Last night, I received a vision.

~~TABITHA~~~~??????????~~~~NICOLE~~~~...Like a dream~~

WINNIE

No Nicole it was a vision.In the form of a dream.I see this woman. In a field. And I'm like "What's your name" and she doesn't say anything so I'm like weird but okay

Then- and I seriously don't know where this comes from- I ask her "... Do you wanna go play putt putt golf?"

So we go play putt putt golf on Mars because apparently she has a spaceship and she invites her friend Gumby and Gumby wins because he has stretchy arms.

And then I'm like, "hey, I'm doing this project with my friends, (uh-er- people I know), and I need some advice. If you had to fix the constitution of the united states in one week, what would you do?" and then she looks at me and she says "I know aaalllllll about the project" And I'm like "HOW" and she's like "because I'm the person in charge." and I'm like "that's a little mysterious but also GREAT because I really need an adult to just TELL ME WHAT TO DO right now" and she looks at me Like she had something really important to say

And then

I forget what came next but I'm in the field again. And she's still there

Finally I'm getting a little nervous so I'm like "okay so... Okay so what do you want"

And like have you guys seen A Christmas Carol

Not the muppets one the one with the crazy animations we watch it every year for Christmas also the Polar Express

So do you know the part where the ghost where he just points. Like points at stuff and somehow it's SUPER SCARY

She did that

TO ME

Or I thought she was pointing at me but I realized she was pointing PAST ME

Into the... fog??? I don't even know what was out there but she was looking for someone

She goes,

Her. HER. HER!!!!!!!!!!!!
